1 Privacy Policy

You are currently visiting Information Catalyst for Enterprise Ltd. (ICE)'s website. ICE considers your personal data and your privacy at the utmost importance. ICE has created this privacy statement to demonstrate its firm commitment to privacy. This privacy notice explains what personal data ICE collects and how these are processed. ICE processes your personal data for this website in order to provide you a helpful and adapted resource to better know ICE.

ICE invites you to read them.

2 ICE Website

IP addresses of visitors to ICE's Web site may be used to help diagnose problems with the server and to administer this Web site. IP addresses may also be used to compile general demographic information. ICE will not attempt to identify individual users through their IP addresses.

ICE may sometime use an outside advertisement company to display ads on ICE's website. These ads may contain cookies. Cookies received with banner ads are collected by the advertisement companies and, as such, ICE does not have access to this information.

3 What is personal data?

Personal data may be any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to that natural person.

4 Data collection

Your personal data on this website can be collected either directly or indirectly. It can be collected directly when, for instance, you voluntarily submit it for subscribing to ICE's newsletter or when completing the contact form. When accessing to these pages, you will be provided information about the collection of your personal data and will be able to give – or not – your consent.

Your personal data can be collected indirectly when using cookies and other technologies. ICE intends to collect information such as the number of visitors, as well as user's last visit date and consulted page. Please refer to the "cookies and other tracking technologies" part below.

5 Purpose of the processing

The purpose of the processing of your personal data is explained in this privacy policy. The personal data collected when you subscribe to a newsletter, or to get in contact with an ICE representative, or want to receive information regarding any of ICE's products, projects and/or services will be used to provide you with the requested services or materials and can be used for further processing for marketing purposes with your explicit consent.

6 ICE and your personal data

For the processes stemming from this website, ICE is the data controller, deciding their purposes and means. Because data protection and security matter, ICE has adopted a Privacy Policy internal data protection processes. ICE's website is hosted in the European Union.

7 Accuracy, relevance and security of your personal data

Any personal data processed by ICE is kept on secure servers. ICE uses reasonable administrative, technical, personnel, and physical measures to safeguard personal data against loss, unauthorized access, use, disclosure, or modification and to ensure the integrity of the personal data. Additionally, ICE ensures to process your personal data only for the purposes mentioned in this privacy notice and to keep data no longer than necessary.

8 Your rights

You have the right to request access, rectification or erasure of your Personal Data. You may also have the right to ask for a portable format of your personal data or restrict or object to the processing of your personal data. To exercise these rights, please contact: info@informationcatalyst.com. This Privacy Notice was originally published on November 30th, 2018 and may be amended from time to time. ICE invites you to consult this page regularly.
